

Call for Tender

Evangelisches Werk für Diakonie und Entwicklung e.V./Brot für die Welt (Protestant Agency for Diakonie and Development/ Bread for the World) is a Berlin based organization for international development cooperation of the protestant churches in Germany. It cooperates with church-related and secular partner organizations in more than 80 countries providing support for development projects on a local, national, regional and global level.

We are looking for two consultants or consultancy firms offering consultancy and support services regarding financial management and outcome and impact-oriented Planning, Monitoring and Evaluation (PME) for international partner organizations who implement projects of global reach, often lobby and advocacy projects at UN level. The purpose is to strengthen the capacity of more than 25 international partner organizations through training, workshops and coaching. The consultancy must correspond to the specific needs of the partner organizations working on a global and meta level and support them to meet the client's funding requirements. Brot für die Welt will offer training for the consultants about specific funding requirements.
